

The Historical Society of Dayton Valley features their annual FREE May historical lecture series. The public is welcome! The lectures feature local life in days' past and will be held at the Dayton Valley Community Center, 170 Pike Street, Old Town Dayton, with refreshments at 7 and the programs begin at 7:30 pm.

- May 3

This program includes 1938 – 1950 (old –time) movies of Dayton and western Nevada with the life and times of the Gene and Del Minor family along with a photo story presentation by Linda Conlin that shows the Carson River floods the Minor family has endured over the years.

- May 10

Kay Winters presents: A Dayton and Carson City rancher wife's life in the 1950s – 1960s.

- May 17

To be announced

- May 24 – NO LECTURE

- May 31 – Katie and Glenn Hasbrouch have purchased and are rejuvenating the 1870 Union Hotel on Pike Street. What a story they have to tell!!

For more information, please call Laura Tennant, 775-246-3256, Gloria Manning, 775-461-3829 or see www.daytonnvhistory.org

The Dayton Schoolhouse Museum:

Located at 135 Shady Lane in Old Town Dayton, the Museum is open daily in May from 11am to 3 pm, Monday – Friday and from 10 am to 4 pm on Saturdays and 1 to 4 pm on Sundays. (The Museum is only open on weekends the rest of the season.) Private tours are available by appointment. Call 775-246-6316 for more information.