Q4 The 2012-2020 Nevada Preservation Plan contained the following vision statement: "We envision a Nevada in which an educated and caring citizenry respects traditional lifeways and works to protect Nevada's archaeological heritage. We see Nevada as a place where historic properties are preserved, interpreted and reused for their economic and intrinsic values and for future generations to appreciate." On a scale of 1 star to 5 stars (with 5 stars = 100%) how close do you think Nevada is today to realizing this vision?

#	OTHER (PLEASE SPECIFY):	DATE
1	Worrying about long term effect of expansion of Reno on aspects of heritage and history and environment that are what I love about Nevada.	11/30/2018 11:28 AM
2	Unfortunately, I believe these are all high priority but I also realize that we don't have the resources to address all of them... Maybe we should break the 8 years into 1 year increments and concentrate on 2 or so each year.	11/29/2018 8:28 AM
3	All of the above objectives work together in the big picture of cultural preservation in Nevada. Therefore, they are all high priority.	11/28/2018 10:06 PM
4	SHPO should focus on improving the working relationships with all governmental agencies especially with NDOT. Aim to beat stipulated review timelines instead of using all of the allotted time for every submittal and resubmittal. Work to understand the element of time and cost impacts and prioritize accordingly.	11/27/2018 8:35 AM
5	Not that SHPO oversight on document review, etc. aren't important, but anything that can streamline this and give you more time for the forward-thinking development of historic preservation as economic and quality-of-life value is vital at this time.	11/26/2018 1:18 PM
6	I am adamantly opposed to costly programs that stop growth, hinder economic development and add expenses or curtail uses of other wise useful buildings. Any studies done MUST be factual and NOT phony. The studies must be scientific not romantic notions not tied to reality. While I love the historic sites, the failure to walk in reality makes me much less supportive. I do not support the attempt to take over privately owned cemeteries	11/26/2018 1:17 PM
7	Washoe County (Reno) has been especially hit hard after the recession. New development has eliminated many structures in the city. Mid-Century motels have been especially hit hard. Outreach to city officials is needed.	11/21/2018 8:55 PM
8	Education overlaps many of the priorities. I'd like to see more time and funds for education at all levels of participation.	11/21/2018 12:43 PM
9	Develop (or actively encourage others to develop) a historic preservation non-profit that can effectively fundraise and engage the public.	11/21/2018 11:27 AM
10	Incorporate Tribal representation and Tribal perspective into all SHPO objectives.  all above mentioned objectives do not specifically incorporate Indian Tribes yet all objectives effect Indian Tribes in political, legal, cultural, and spiritual ways.	11/19/2018 11:06 AM
11	Incorporate Native knowledge and perspectives into planning and decision-making processes.	11/17/2018 9:43 AM
12	Have a more inclusive approach that includes tribal cultural properties	11/16/2018 3:36 PM
13	It would be useful to include federal agencies as partners in historic preservation. There seems to be no connection to federal agencies who manage the largest percentage of land in Nevada.	11/14/2018 1:19 PM
14	Identify and complete recording cultural sites, i.e. Arrow Canyon, all wilderness area sites, National Monument sites.	11/11/2018 4:31 PM
15	Create a better public outreach program. Many rural Nevadans feel they cannot trust government agencies such as the BLM.	11/4/2018 10:53 AM
16	Identifying funding for historic preservation projects, including state funds.	11/4/2018 6:00 AM
17	Nevada needs to do a better job of representing the various ethnic groups that helped build this state. The often-times brutal bigotry and violence they faced in doing so, (i.e the Chinese) needs to be addressed in the form of educational memorial sites. Thank you.	10/23/2018 8:19 AM
18	How can a University come up with millions of dollars for their sports teams, but not spend the money to move 6 houses? I love our teams as I am a Native Nevadan, but if just baffled me. :(10/19/2018 12:41 PM
19	Promote community investment by promoting existing or new funding, tools and knowledge to create viable options for historic buildings and become self-sufficient stewards of those projects.	10/18/2018 3:47 PM
20	goal - need to expedite getting through the Section 106 process faster with SHPO (improve the time frame to review and approve cultural reports, programmatic agreements, treatment plans, etc.) The timeframe to successfully complete the current process takes too long (and it is very expensive).	10/18/2018 8:47 AM
21	Valued historic buildings are dropping like flies--great losses in 2018, especially in Reno	10/17/2018 10:39 AM

22	Where are you with UNR's current demolition of neighborhoods??!!! Where are you with National/State boards being disbanded??	10/17/2018 10:19 AM
23	Seek new partners that can amplify your message in new and diverse contexts. Also, grow the funding available for grants and community resources.	10/12/2018 8:36 AM
24	Monitor resource loss and evaluate in order to help the preservation agenda	10/11/2018 12:08 PM
25	Care more about protecting prehistoric resources, traditional cultural properties, and have greater involvement with tribal governments to develop preservation initiatives that are actually important to them.	10/5/2018 10:20 AM
26	Utilize new technologies and methods of communication, such as social media, to educate the public about preservation and preservation organizations	9/27/2018 10:14 AM

1	Require Real Estate Brokers to provide information to people considering purchasing historic properties. It would explain considerations, responsibilities, rules, etc. and how to comply. Also stress importance of historic preservation.	11/30/2018 11:28 AM
2	Again, there are so many tasks here that should be taken on but how can we take on this large a number or even prioritize them through surveys?	11/29/2018 8:28 AM
3	Work on desert dumping issue. Getting worse	11/28/2018 6:45 PM
4	Less is needed from SHPO	11/27/2018 8:35 AM
5	I just checked all of these because why not, but stuff like training professionals and engaging in meetings with agencies probably does not have the upside of a targeted campaign to emphasize economic development.	11/26/2018 1:18 PM
6	If you study economic impacts it should be from BOTH sides. Windows crumble and so do buildings when a window that should cost $500 costs 50,000. because of historic demands. Some buildings are not historically significant and it is wrong for taxpayers to have to pay $50,000 for a 500 window because some well meaning individual put buildings on the register. I work in a crumbling building thanks mostly to expensive demands and standards we cannot afford. The building will be lost due to being listed and the inability to replace windows and doors at a reasonable MARKET cost not special 'replica' windows that make no difference to the history of the place or the structure.	11/26/2018 1:17 PM
7	All of the actions are above and I hope all move forward. Have not selected all simply because I believe initial focus and priorities will lead to ultimate success.	11/26/2018 9:15 AM
8	Identify Historic Assets within the new Opportunity zones targeted for preservation. Maybe a prioritized listing bringing extra attention to those properties.	11/24/2018 5:12 PM
9	This is tough. You can't do EVERYTHING, as great as that would be!	11/22/2018 6:48 PM
10	I really think a window workshop is needed !!!	11/21/2018 8:55 PM

Nevada Preservation Survey #2

12	The item "All Nevadans know which Native American...." doesn't make sense. It should probably read: "Develop programs to teach all Nevadans about Native American tribes that live here, including pre-contact, historic, and modern information about these members of the community."	11/21/2018 12:05 PM
13	Way too many to answer and all good ideas but very confusing as what to focus on. I don't feel I have the expertise to choose.	11/21/2018 11:31 AM
14	Fund and support the preparation of regional or statewide historic contexts to facilitate the identification, evaluation, and preservation of significant resources, and also to streamline the compliance process.	11/21/2018 11:17 AM
15	Add funding for Nevada State Museums	11/21/2018 10:59 AM
16	Promote an educational program to tribal and local schools and make curriculum development to include local tribal history, local tribal language, traditional ecological knowledge, and accessible tribal culture.	11/19/2018 11:06 AM
17	Encourage and fund education about modern-day Indians and tribal organizations at grade school and higher education levels.	11/17/2018 9:43 AM
18	Save the Huntridge Theater	11/8/2018 12:23 PM
19	Support and engage in preservation legislation that can help advance historic preservation in Nevada.	11/7/2018 2:42 PM
20	Increase the amount of staff in Clark County to increase the capabilities of that office to effectively complete these tasks.	10/21/2018 9:14 AM
21	Other tasks could include establishing set timeframes to review/approve documents, be cognitive about costs incurred by industry (some mitigation is cost prohibitive and not worth the effort).	10/18/2018 8:47 AM
22	Nevada Preservation is sad. Being a working preservation professional in this state is a challenge and its because the state takes no initiative, supplies only the minimum and is preserving very little when it comes to historic resources. Compared to other states in the U.S., its rock bottom. Please make these objectives a first rate priority and apply each and every one of these tasks to make Nevada great in educating America (as well as native Nevadans) its history!	10/17/2018 11:00 PM
23	A lot of talk but not much walk	10/17/2018 10:39 AM
24	Reach out to companies who work to improve our environment and bring them into the loop on the additional need to protect our cultural resources. Also to Schools and provide them with educational tools for what we have, why we need to save it, what we are currently doing to save them and what they can do to help save them.	10/14/2018 7:08 AM
25	Develop educational programs for professional archaeologists aimed at showing them why having respect for the input of stakeholders (especially Native Americans!) is so important. (I am saying this in all sincerity as a professional archaeologist myself).	10/11/2018 2:29 PM
26	-Expand access to site steward training opportunities for rural Nevadans. Remote resources are more fragile and at greater risk for looting and vandalism than resources in urban centers partially because of the lack of stewards.	10/5/2018 10:20 AM

2	Work together with public agencies not in an adversarial way	11/27/2018 8:41 AM
3	realistic conservation instead of 'no matter what it costs' mentality. I am not a supporter of historic preservation because so often it makes a structure unrealistic to save. Seriously buildings that would be better documented are having millions poured into something that in reality is wall paper and could be attached to a metal structure for support. Local government CANNOT afford what historic preservation imposes that is why they cannot support it.	11/26/2018 1:24 PM
4	Lack of us selling the values to real-time economic and quality-of-life aspects to agencies and legislators	11/26/2018 1:23 PM
5	SHPO should have to create regulations. Consultation is a huge part of this.	11/26/2018 10:57 AM
6	I think the vast majority of the public is disinterested in cultural resource preservation.	11/25/2018 7:14 PM
7	There needs to be some teeth (fines) for people that disregard, damage or destroy local historical structures, sites, etc. The local historic districts need more ability to require people and organizations through punishment in some way. The Comstock Hist. District, has no teeth and are far too lenient with people who do not comply.	11/21/2018 2:16 PM
8	Reno has no History or Cultural Museum focusing on Reno. We need one. The NV Historical Society should be expanded.	11/21/2018 11:27 AM
9	In many places in rural Nevada, preservation is considered a low priority, and a costly one, in relation to other land uses and rural livelihoods. In line with demonstrating community and economic benefits - it is not necessarily the next generations we are raising that are not receiving enough education but the middle generations that are working and in charge of making development and economic decisions (and who will likely still be in place in the next 10 years) that could benefit from education about the benefits to them regarding historic preservation.	11/21/2018 11:20 AM
10	Lack of widely advertised information regarding the existence and the importance of cultural resources in our communities	11/21/2018 11:08 AM
11	My community is an Indian Reservation. Our critical issues include the effects of genocide, colonization, governmental imposed assimilation, the lack of inter-agency knowledge of Indian Law, lack of funding, and lack consultation with Indian Tribes. Also, lack of Indigenous and tribal historical education in educational facilities. All these issues create challenges to access our cultural resources.	11/19/2018 11:32 AM
12	New people moving into Nevada who don't know the history and don't have time to investigate on their own.	11/17/2018 4:47 PM
13	Lack of public safety awareness regarding historical and archaeological sites.	11/16/2018 2:29 PM
14	Government officials only care about money and selling off land to private investors--they could be careless about preservation and keeping lands public for all to enjoy.	11/7/2018 11:01 AM
15	Lack of understanding that preservation can be used as a positive community development and urban planning strategy.	10/18/2018 3:57 PM
16	Education in preservation is a top down approach, and starts with the NVSHPO. The state sets the goals that education (UNR and schools) follow in educating the public that are currently actively getting the word out to preserve, protect, promote, etc. I am adjunct faculty at UNR in Historic Preservation and all my students write a short paper on the state's Preservation Plan. There papers are very informative and point out all of these lacks.	10/17/2018 11:24 PM
17	Need less government, but private owners should be more responsible with historic properties	10/17/2018 10:44 AM
18	Just commenting here to stress how important it is to get local governments involved and active in historic preservation (I'm looking at you, Reno and Las Vegas). Same goes for governmental entities such as UNR, responsible for the destruction of one of the coolest existing Reno neighborhoods.	10/11/2018 2:48 PM

1	again, reality check is local government cannot afford historic preservation, it is an 'ok' tourism draw, but unless your community has tons of money it is ridiculous waste of taxpayer dollars.	11/26/2018 1:24 PM

3	I believe that cultural resource preservation is too costly and cumbersome. the process needs to be simplified and streamlined to enable more to embrace it for the good of the community. The process is cumbersome.	11/25/2018 7:14 PM
4	The laws do not give historic districts the ability to enforce the existing codes and guidelines for HDC's	11/21/2018 2:16 PM
5	BLM needs funds for additional policing activities at cultural sites.	11/21/2018 12:17 PM
6	While there is sufficient communication between agencies and Indian Tribes, the legal process to protect our cultural resources are compromised during these communications i.e; the sharing of sensitive cultural areas. Federal leases and contracts with companies also impede on our ability to protect traditional lands, these contracts include oil and mineral leases. Usually, consultation may occur, but we are contacted too late or our consultation suggestions are not incorporated in the project.	11/19/2018 11:32 AM
7	Jobs. Preservation jobs are limited, especially in architectural historian, and those jobs that are offered are far and between. NV should be soliciting for RFPs in my field more than every 2-3 years. Permanent positions in the field of preservation are beyond needed.	10/17/2018 11:24 PM
8	Should NOT replace historic windows. Should restore historic windows!!	10/17/2018 10:44 AM
9	Rampant and widespread development; rampant and widespread use of off-highway vehicles on public lands	10/15/2018 11:45 AM
10	Okay, first of all, in our global warming world, we should never try to stop energy-efficiency improvements even if it negatively affects historic preservation (maybe I can give a pass on window replacements in houses and small buildings). I have to say as a professional archaeologist though, the NV SHPO has played its own role in hindering protection of cultural resources (see the historic, failing sewer lines comment from the previous survey, a comment not left by me). When the SHPO takes a ridiculous public stance such as that one, it undermines the public's view of historic preservation and does professional historic preservationists, and historic preservation itself, a disservice.	10/11/2018 2:48 PM
11	Lack of State- and Local- level laws protecting cultural resources	10/11/2018 12:24 PM
12	Our local newspaper should carry more information on historic preservation in our area (Ely)	10/3/2018 5:18 AM
13	Ignorance of the laws protecting resources and ignorance of the importance of them.	9/27/2018 10:21 AM

Q9 If you had $100,000 or more to invest in improving historic preservation each year, how might you spend it?

Q11 Are there any other issues or comments that should be considered as the Nevada SHPO continues in the preparation of the 2020-2028 Preservation Plan?

1	I didn't comment much on this section of the survey because we are recent transplants to V.C. but enthused and interested in the history and archaeology of Nevada.	11/30/2018 11:35 AM
2	No comment	11/29/2018 3:41 AM
3	Try getting 50% of what has already been identified on the ground and running. There are enough topics to work on.	11/28/2018 10:14 PM
4	none at this time	11/27/2018 3:59 PM
5	The SHPO is appropriately sized and funded. Work more efficiently through working more cooperatively.	11/27/2018 8:41 AM
6	SHPO needs to do a better job of reaching out to Nevada tribes, when trying to get tribes involved in SB244	11/26/2018 2:30 PM
7	imposing crushing regulation is the reason everyone hates SHPO. The fact you refuse to operate in real time and delay projects is another. Unless you get realistic about costs to local government, realistic to owners of buildings the support will continue to dwindle. Unless the sincere balance between economic development and historic preservation happens, economic development sees historic preservation as one more roadblock to jobs.	11/26/2018 1:24 PM
8	Every year the tribes need to be able meet with the SHPO, this should be part of the regulations created moving forward!!	11/26/2018 10:57 AM
9	Thank you for envisioning more statewide emphasis on historic preservation.	11/26/2018 9:19 AM
10	While drafting the plan, enough leeway needs to be given to address unforeseen issues that might arise during the time period until the next update occurs.	11/26/2018 8:44 AM
11	There should be a path to data sharing and access to NVCRIS for project proponents that provides them with sufficient data to avoid impacting cultural resource sites.	11/26/2018 8:05 AM
12	Funding for volunteer participation	11/25/2018 11:15 AM
13	Promotion of state historical markers to Nevada residents. Creation of short videos that flesh out the markers, available to K-12 teachers (tied to state ed standards), and linked to Shpo site for the public.	11/24/2018 10:27 AM
14	Provide an open and collaborative environment between Federal Agencies, Local Government, and CR Consultants for consultation and preservation of cultural resources	11/23/2018 10:41 AM
15	Honestly I think the biggest issue is cheap development (condos and strip malls). Future development should highlight and value cultural resources.	11/23/2018 8:46 AM
16	More SHPO outreach when there are threatened buildings. Sometimes I feel the SHPO is not there when there is an immediate crisis.	11/21/2018 9:01 PM
17	Stop UNR from demolishing the 19th century homes on North Center St, the Gateway to the University and the only block of intact Victorian houses.	11/21/2018 4:58 PM
18	coordination with Nevada Humanities and the State Library	11/21/2018 2:41 PM
19	Enhance the Historic District state laws to provide for some enforcement capability for non-compliance and require historic district staff to be consistent in enforcement of preservation standards.	11/21/2018 2:16 PM
20	accessibility for people with various disabilities	11/21/2018 1:20 PM
21	More emphasis on preservation and documentation of cultural resources.	11/21/2018 12:17 PM

Nevada Preservation Survey #2

22	Training is very important	11/21/2018 11:08 AM
23	N/A	11/21/2018 11:06 AM
24	Consider championing the preservation efforts of one or two "high-profile" resources in the State as a means of demonstrating the value of preserving these resources to the public.	11/21/2018 11:03 AM
25	Landscape preservation	11/21/2018 11:02 AM
26	lack of teaching history in high school. many students are completely ignorant of our history and its significance.	11/21/2018 10:54 AM
27	Research material should be digitized and quereable.	11/21/2018 10:42 AM
28	Please consider incorporating Indian Tribes into your verbiage within the 2020-2028 Preservation Plan. Yes, it should be explicit. Consult with Indian Tribes, incorporate their feedback into the plan. Provide a detailed outline of the SHPO legal process for better transparency and accountability.	11/19/2018 11:32 AM
29	The vision statement needs to be more inclusive. As currently written, it over-emphasizes historic properties.	11/16/2018 3:41 PM
30	Revitalization of smaller towns that have high potential such as Dayton. There is much wasted potential in areas like that due to a lack of interest. If Dayton and other such towns were more well-preserved and/or revitalized, it could generate more taxable income for Nevada.	11/16/2018 2:29 PM
31	-SHPO to conduct a yearly meeting with the NV Tribes to provide updates on Native American cultural resources surveyed that year and TCP nominations and eligibility determinations that year. Not all cultural resource history is determined by science (archeologist). Native American may have a different perspective on its own culture. The Preservation Plan must not be all science based regarding Native American Cultural Resources. The 2012 Plan Goal E.9-identify new preservation partners- seek to partner with interested tribes (on-going)? what is the status of this? Out of 28 tribes, how has SHPO partnered? SHPO must have better outreach to NV Tribes.	11/16/2018 2:12 PM
32	Evaluation criteria are based on historic contexts -- preparing contexts and assisting with preservation of properties are two important issues.	11/14/2018 1:25 PM
33	Sites are suffering negative impacts from weather. MUST BE RECORDED!	11/11/2018 4:37 PM
34	demonstrating the economic value of preservation	11/8/2018 10:48 AM
35	Build trust with local citizens.	11/4/2018 11:00 AM
36	These goals seem unreachable without sufficient staffing.	10/21/2018 9:17 AM
37	Can't think of any.	10/19/2018 12:48 PM
38	Facts and figures on the economic, social and environmental benefits of preservation. The integration into urban planning and creating spaces focused on community benefit (this can include affordable housing!) - not just house museums or protected archaeological sites.	10/18/2018 3:57 PM
39	I object to having a structure be historic when it is 50 years old (this is too young in age, it is not significant enough). Suggest designation of historic structure be at least 80-100 years old.	10/18/2018 9:02 AM
40	I highly recommend reviewing other state preservation plans. Please add pretty colorful images to the new plan, and do not make it heavily archeological. Preservation is a multidisciplinary field and takes on numerous facets to the field and the majority of it is the built environment.	10/17/2018 11:24 PM
41	I wish there was a way to encourage private owners to preserve historic buildings	10/17/2018 10:44 AM
42	Not creating a site record for every unnamed two-track shown on 1950s+ maps; make them isolated features	10/16/2018 2:42 PM
43	No comment.	10/15/2018 11:45 AM
44	Grow your resources.	10/12/2018 8:39 AM
45	Just that, again, the SHPO should think in a more long-term fashion when it comes to historic preservation. We need to stay aware of how the public views historic preservation, and when we take a stance that makes us look ridiculous to the public (the sewer lines is such a perfect example), we could find historic preservation laws weakened at the state and federal levels. It also might do the SHPO good to continue to show more value for practical, on the ground experience when evaluating candidates for future hires (they've done well in this regard with a couple of the most recent hires).	10/11/2018 2:48 PM
