

Historical guidelines for “sculptures”

possible addition to Comstock Historic District Standards along with the Solar Panel info?

Selecting sculptures for historical areas involves careful consideration of context and significance.

- Commemorative sculptures — These honor significant historical figures or events, fostering public remembrance and education.
- Cultural representations — Sculptures that reflect the local culture or heritage can enhance community identity and pride.
- Public art installations — These can provoke thought and discussion about historical narratives, encouraging engagement with the past.
- Memorials — Designed to honor those who contributed to the community's history, these sculptures serve as lasting tributes

1. Be aware: In 2025-26 there is a lot of new “wayfinding and installations” being introduced, which will set a precedent.....
